

TROUBLE CAUSED BY WIRE STRIKE

Business Halted by Telegraph Trouble, but Week Makes Fair Record.

BUSY TIMES IN REALTY

GOSSIP OF THE WEEK IN THE FINANCIAL WORLD.

Trade conditions in Salt Lake have experienced an excellent week, despite labor troubles and the feeling of uneasiness that is steadily drifting through from the east over the financial situation there. The strike has unquestionably caused local business men considerable inconvenience, to say nothing of a deal of worry. The situation is not clearing up as rapidly as was hoped, and merchants are preparing for a siege. It was not generally realized here before the telegraphers went out what the result of the strike commercially would be. Banks especially have suffered. Bankers are looking more closely at the paper tendered them these days than they have for over a year or more. This is due to the reports that are coming from the eastern cities on prospective hard times and a panic. The reports have led to conservatism on the part of bankers. Money rates in the east and in London have stiffened up perceptibly the past week, the Bank of England raising its rate of discount to 4 1/2 per cent, the mark below which money will not be loaned to anyone, no matter how good his rating or credit. A large amount of money is being sent west to move the crops, the New York banks alone last week sending over a million and a half dollars into the interior.

Realty and Building.

In the movement of small residence property, the smaller commercial properties and for inquiry on real estate and houses, the past week has been the best of the entire summer, and for the greater portion of the year, in fact. Every dealer has a goodly number of small transfers to his credit, and the values are holding firm. "Taken all in all, it is the best week for a good volume of a fair business we have had this year," declared Howard Stowe of Stowe & Palmer, yesterday. "We have moved about $25,000 worth of small residence property this week at good, solid, substantial values, and the inquiry along this same line has been unusually active." Other dealers voiced the same sentiments yesterday, and it is evident that the dealers are due for a very active fall. Three years ago practically every dealer in Salt Lake had a long list of property for sale, a string of empty houses numbering from ten to twenty that he was trying to rent, and any number of demands for repairs to houses by tenants who threatened to move out. Today there is scarcely a rentable house or flat in the city vacant, and the dealers have waiting lists instead of house lists.

Big Deals of Week.

Two wholesale concerns from the east have located in the city the past ten days, and the Crane company purchased the old Baptist church corner at Second South and Second West streets for $48,000, with the announced intention of putting up a four-story office and store building for the company. Five years ago the company erected and moved into the three-story building they now occupy on East First South street. They have completely outgrown their quarters in that time.

The visit of E. H. Harriman here awakened interest last week in the work on the new Oregon Short Line depot and the Oregon Short Line yards. A big steam shovel is excavating for the building, and the foundation work will be started by the last of October in all probability. The Newhouse and the Judge buildings are moving ahead satisfactorily. The steel for the Newhouse buildings is on the way and will be here within ten days. It is a fact not generally known that with neither building above ground yet, Mr. Newhouse has rented all the office space in the Boston block and half the office space in the Newhouse building. Contractors are hustling their work as fast as possible, and building operations generally around town are humming along at a good rate. Shingles have gone up slightly again, brick is hard to get and labor is getting a little more scarce.

With the Retailers.

With the exception of the special sales being conducted at most of the stores, the retailers have experienced a very quiet week. The call for mining machinery is steadily increasing and hardware men report a good demand in their line. There is an especially strong call for sporting goods of all description just now, due to the vacation season being at its height.

Buyers for the local retail stores are returning from the east with reports that they have put in the heaviest stocks on record. Some of the larger consignments will begin coming in the next two weeks, but it is probable that merchants will have a late fall and no fall goods will be displayed for several weeks to come.

The clothing trade continues fair, with cut prices predominating at the majority of the stores. Shoemen say the traveling men from the jobbing houses are already on the road with the fall goods, and that country merchants are writing in for orders. Prices show no inclination to go lower than at present. White and tan shoes are still selling in goodly numbers, despite the approach of fall.

Wholesalers Busy.

The local wholesale dry goods men report receiving shipments of goods for the fall trade in large quantities. These include all of the staple lines. The advance in cotton continues, and jobbers are apprehensive as to the outcome of the increase. Many predict that should the cotton market continue to go up, foreign goods will shortly make their appearance on the local market. The advance in wool has produced a small shock last week through the strike of 5,000 ribbon weavers in New York and other eastern factories. The operators want an eight-hour day, and the controversy is being adjusted. The wholesale grocers are busy with big orders. General trade in grocery goods continues good along staple lines.

Stocks and Bonds.

The local commercial stock market has suffered a good deal the past week from the inability of the operators to get eastern quotations on time, and from the general uneasy tone of the eastern stock market, to say nothing of the shrinkage of the New York exchange list. There has been little movement in any of the high-priced stocks. The latest quotations are as follows:

WANTLAND SUES OIL CO.

Wants Million Shares of Stock of Pittsburg-Salt Lake for Promotion Services.

A suit involving over a million shares of stock in the Pittsburg-Salt Lake Oil company was filed yesterday in the district court by W. M. Wantland against E. T. Brockman, C. E. Gable, A. V. Taylor, Joseph H. Richards and the Pittsburg-Salt Lake Oil company. The par value of the stock claimed by Mr. Wantland is $1,315,875. In his complaint Mr. Wantland maintains that he was promised this amount of stock for promoting and organizing the company. He says that this stock has been withheld from him. He now sues to have the stock turned over to him or in its stead a judgment for $1,315,875.

BOYS' BAND MAKES A HIT

William J. Bryan and Creator Among Those Who Praise Efforts of Salt Lake Juveniles.

The boys' band of Salt Lake is scoring a big success at the Winona boys' camp. Harry Wolff, assistant manager of the band tour, reached home yesterday afternoon. He said that the success of the boys exceeded all expectations. Judge Willis Brown and the boys are expected home in a week or ten days.

At Waterloo, Ia., the boys played before William Jennings Bryan, and had their picture taken with the famous leader of Democracy. Mr. Bryan was pleased with the boys' work, and said that it was unquestionably the best boys' band he had ever heard, and that he had heard many.

"JOGGIN' ALONG."

From far-away India comes evidence alive and well satisfied with life. The colonel formerly was a prominent patent attorney in this city. Now he finds enjoyment in philosophy and into verse, a sample of which has just appeared in print.

While "joggin' along" on life's journey, "There's many things often seem wrong; But dear one, as you didn't plan it, Don't mind it, keep 'joggin' along."

It's certain, perhaps you don't know it.

The thoughts which your memory will point a bright future and show it, If you will keep "joggin' along."

Sweet songsters on wings keep a singing, As if the whole earth did belong To them, don't you hear their notes ringing? To keep you a "joggin' along."

In making of world, were you present? To you does its progress belong? No, you were not even consulted, Then keep on a "joggin' along."

Above you, the sun it keeps shining, Don't worry, for fear you've done The clouds have a bright silver lining, For those who keep "joggin' along."

There's nothing on life's rugged highway, No matter how short, or how long; But what the dear Lord's hand is in it, So keep on a "joggin' along."

Don't worry for God he is running Just everything, also my song; He's sending the sunshine and showers, So keep on a "joggin' along."

If thinking you're running creation, Or maybe, that God's work is wrong; Stop; tend to your own little business, While cheerfully "joggin' along."

Be thankful for breath, and for sunshine, If snowing, keep singing a song; If it blows, the roses are growing, So keep on a "joggin' along."

Keep "joggin' along," oh, life's pilgrim, For flowers and birds' sweetest song; Will smother the past with their fragrance, If you will keep "joggin' along."

God's ruling the world in its progress, To him all results they belong; Then don't ever fear what may happen, But keep on a "joggin' along."

Keep "joggin' along" all creation, Quit sighing, and sing a glad song; No matter what's e'er the relation, Be brave and keep "joggin' along."

If spring-like you'd have your December, Keep heart full of sunshine and song; If you would be happy, remember Just keep on a "joggin' along."

Your troubles and sorrows will vanish, Your courage be hopeful and strong; If anger and hate you will banish And keep on a "joggin' along."

COURT NOTES.

Proceedings to foreclose a mortgage on several suburban lots belonging to Elizabeth Smith were begun yesterday in the district court by O. O. The mortgage was given as security on a note given April 2, 1906.

Suit was filed in the district court yesterday by the McCoskey-McConahey Lumber company to foreclose on a mechanic's lien on a part of a lot belonging to George Faranow. The lien was to secure payment of $22.32 the lumber company says is due it for material.

A petition was filed yesterday in the probate branch of the district court by Sarah Price of Park City, asking that she be appointed guardian of the property of Mrs. Redrika Erickson, who was committed to the insane asylum last week.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

The Ely-Virginia Copper company of Salt Lake filed articles of incorporation yesterday with the county clerk. The company owns fourteen mining claims in White Pine county, Nevada, and is capitalized at $500,000, divided into 41 shares. A. J. Weber is president of the company; John McCoskey, vice president; W. A. Leiblein, secretary, and W. F. Adams, treasurer.

Talks on Teeth

By B. I. REX, M. D., D. D. S.

PARTIAL PLATE TALES

One of the most eminent divines in America, a famous pulpit orator and equally famous on the lecture platform, had been so unfortunate as to lose most of his teeth.

He was obliged to wear a partial plate.

A lady tells of listening to him deliver an eloquent sermon one Sunday morning. His hearers were fairly carried away with the beauty of his word painting. He had about concluded his address, and after a pause, during which all eyes were fixed upon him, he began his closing appeal, when, without warning, HIS FALSE TEETH FELL OUT AND ROLLED UPON THE DESK BEFORE HIM!

The effect of that address was lost by the unfortunate and embarrassing accident.

Another man, a public singer, was always in mortal terror lest, when facing an audience, he should blow his plate out of his mouth in the midst of a song, something that frequently happened to him, so he said, while practicing in private.

Some lose their plates while eating, some while talking, some while singing, some while laughing—the poor victim of the partial plate is never sure of himself unless he keeps his mouth shut.

A partial plate is a nuisance, and we have made it unnecessary since the discovery of the Alveolar Method of putting teeth in the gums WITHOUT USING ANY PLATE.

If there are two or more teeth left in either jaw, tight or loose ones, we will restore all that have been lost and make them as tight and firm in the gums as the natural teeth, make them look natural, feel natural, act natural. No pain in the process while it is being done or afterwards.

We ask preachers, lawyers, singers, elocutionists and all those who make their living with the aid of the voice, to come and let us show them what we can do for them, if they are worrying along with a nuisance of a plate.

A corps of the most skillful operators to be found will wait upon you. The careful examination, which is the first step in the work, is entirely free. We do all forms of dental work, but the Alveolar Method is our great specialty and to do such work we must needs have the best workmen.

Another thing we wish to impress on you in advance is that these new teeth will not have any of the marks of the "false teeth" upon them. They are teeth, and each tooth we put in is a real tooth with which you can chew and grind your food. You will not be conscious of having false teeth in your gums. You will be able to enunciate with as much clearness as when you had natural teeth.

There is only one difficulty about the work—it cannot be done at long range. You must come to us to get it.

It may seem a hardship to make the trip from a distance to have new teeth put in, but patients are coming to us from all over this country and Canada. The satisfaction of having a full set of teeth in place of a miserable partial plate or a tortuous bridge is great enough to admit of any sacrifice.

If you cannot come at once, do the next best thing: Send for Dr. Rex's book, "Alveolar Dentistry," which gives full particulars of the work. This book and a book of testimonials will be sent free upon request.

We guarantee results.

by Judge Armstrong. The property consists of an interest in real estate bringing her monthly income of $10, $20 in the bank and household goods valued at $50. Mrs. Price is the niece of the insane woman.

Mrs. Florence M. Ehrbar and her three children have filed a damage suit against the Tribune Publishing company for $50,000. Frank G. Ehrbar, husband of the plaintiff in the action, was killed while at work on the construction of the heating plant of the Tribune on Feb. 19, 1907, by the falling of a timber. The complaint alleges that the falling of the timber was due to the negligence of the company.

Lost Manhood

OUR FEE IS $12.50 In Any Uncomplicated Case.

Don't Be Discouraged. Don't Give Up Hope. There is Help for You. Act Today.

In our very extensive practice we have learned a few truths that are undeniably of interest to EVERY MAN. First of all, we find that the very serious and so-called "incurable" cases are due usually to NEGLECT and DELAY. Again, we know that many men suffer FOR YEARS and practically RUIN THEIR HEALTH FOREVER trying to dose themselves with some patent nostrum that never could cure. And further, it is evident that many men will run to what they call "cheap" treatment. NO TREATMENT AT ALL is what "cheap" treatment means in nine cases out of ten. The last state of the man is worse than the first. Just before you go a line further in this announcement, stop and ask yourself as to whether YOU are following in the foolish footsteps of the man who NEGLECTS himself. Are YOU trying to cure yourself with nostrums? Are YOU looking for treatment that will not cure? If you are, it is certain that you will regret it. It is NEVER TOO LATE to get on the right path, but at the same time remember that you cannot get there too soon. The best help in the world is none too good for you; you cannot get it too quickly. We offer it to you at the lowest fees possible.
